GAME OBJECTIVE (DRINKING RULES IN RED)
For the series finale, the object is to select WHO! will become America's Next Top Model. Drink.

BEFORE THE SHOW

1. Choose the girl who you think will be ELIMINATED because of her bad Cover Girl commercial by marking the "COMM" box for your candidate. If your chosen model is eliminated after the Cover Girl Panel you have one additional point to assign immediately to any available model. Drink.
2. You have ONE point to assign to available models, by filling in a white box on the Rating Bar (the yellow bar represents neutral, or zero). This point can be positive or negative. Pick your favorite to win or try to bring down the one you H8. Drink.
3. Choose if the model opening Tyra Mail will get one positive or one negative point by marking the appropriate box of the Tyra Mail bar. Whomever is holding the Tyra Mail card and reading it receives one point, positive or negative, according to your marked choice. Everytime Tyra Mail is read, drink.
4. Choose the girl who you think will win and be America's Next Top Model by marking the ANTM box for your candidate. Drink.

DURING THE SHOW

4. If Panel references and shows a clip of a previous Cycle model while discussing a current Cycle model, the current model is awarded a plus or minus point, depending on how favorable/not favorable the reference is. Drink.
5. If a model cries about hair or makeup, minus one point & drink.
6. If a model cries about missing a family member/significant other, minus one point & drink.
7. If Tyra addresses a model as "Girl", "Girlfriend", "Sister" or "Miss Thing", model gets one plus point & drink.
8. If Tyra says the word "booty", all models plus one point & drink.
9. If model gets sent to the hospital, minus one point. Drink.
10. If model gets sent to the hospital and misses photoshoot, plus one point. If model misses photoshoot for any other reason (ex: missing the limo) minus one point. Drink.
11. If model gets a high-five, hug or any form of physical affection from Miss J, plus two points. Drink.
12. Anytime anyone says the word "fierce", drink.

Then, total your points, drink, and see how closely your choices (and a bit of luck) are in line with the Panel's decisions. Did they eliminate who you eliminated? Did you win by marking the correct ANTM or did they have the highest score? You could be on Panel next cycle!

THANK YOU TO EVERYONE FOR PLAYING. I HOPE YOU HAD FUN! DRINK.
